

COURT RULE 80K BASIC TRAINING
WORKSHOP ANNOUNCEMENT

For JUNE 29, 2011

The State Planning Office, Code Enforcement Officer Training and Certification program will sponsor a training workshop on basic Court Rule 80K. Durward Parkinson from the Law Firm of Bergen & Parkinson will be presenting this workshop. Issues covered include, but are not limited to; statutory law update, case law update, overview of Rule 80K actions, procedures of Rule 80K action, trial tips and techniques, evidence, and appearing in court as well as a mock trial.

Registration will begin at 8:30. The session will run from 9:00-4:00. Due to budget restrictions we will not be able to provide food. Please bring coffee and a bag lunch. You will have an hour for lunch if you would like to leave the meeting site for lunch.

80K Certification is not required as part of the Title 30-A § 4451, CEO Certification. Rule 80K of Maine Rules of Civil Procedure is an additional, optional, tool in the enforcement of Land Use violations which may be used by municipal and State employees who have the required certification. Those currently certified in 80K will earn six recertification credits. Individuals seeking certification will find the workshop and materials helpful in preparation for the Court Rule 80K exam.

Please note: This is basic training geared toward new code enforcement officers and local plumbing inspectors as well as those preparing to sit for exams. In the CEO Training and Certification rule a CEO or LPI can only use 6 credits of SPOs basic training toward recertification in any specific certification area.

Registration deadline: June 17, 2010
SPACE IS LIMITED!!

This workshop will be held at the following location:
